

This study guide accompanies the book, Beyond Regret, by Laurie Driesen. This page accompanies part 1, Understanding Regret: chapters  $\mathbf{1} - \mathbf{9}$ . These questions may be used for each chapter.

| What meant the most to you in this chapter?                                    |
|--|
| What would you like to learn more about?                                       |
| Do you feel that you understand more about regret from this reading?           |
| Are you able to view your regret from a different perspective?                 |
| What changes would you like to make as a result of learning from this chapter? |

This study guide accompanies the book, Beyond Regret, by Laurie Driesen. This page accompanies part 2, Moving Beyond Regret: chapters 10-20. These questions may be used for each chapter.

| What was important or had the most impact on you?   |
|---|
| Do you feel that you have a greater understanding of the main topic of this chapter?                |
| Can you identify specific actions that may have contributed to regret in your life?                 |
| What was the most difficult idea or challenging thought for you in this reading?                    |
| Is there any specific action that you would like to take as a result of learning from this chapter? |

This study guide accompanies the book, Beyond Regret, by Laurie Driesen. This page accompanies part 3, Preventing Future Regret: chapters 21 – 26. These questions may be used for each chapter.

| What was important or had the most impact on you?                                   |  |
|---|--|
| Based on this chapter, describe how future regret can be prevented.                 |  |
| How do you believe God can use your regret to help you?                             |  |
| In what areas of your life do you feel you can make better choices?                 |  |
| What specific actions will you take in order to prevent future regret in your life? |  |

This study guide accompanies the book, Beyond Regret, by Laurie Driesen. This page accompanies part 4, Living Your Life Purpose: chapters 27 - 32. These questions may be used for each chapter.

| What idea was the most significant and personal for you?   |
|--|
| How does this chapter clarify God's purpose for us or His calling on our lives?                      |
| What are you most hopeful about after reading this chapter?  |
| How do you think God can use your regret to help others?   |
| Describe a dream, goal or desire that you have for your life that would serve and honor theLord. |

